Dedication

To our mothers and fathers—whose interests have been in the improvement of our lives—whose love and encouragement have been inspirational—and whose never-ending sacrifices have made possible these four years of high school—we respectfully dedicate "The Green Years of 1966."

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Mary Anne Peck

Editor's Message—High School marks the transitional years between childhood and adulthood. In the "Green Years—1966", we have attempted to capture the years of studies, classes, sports, rallies, and fun that go hand in hand with the process of maturing.

The high moments of these years will fade, but this volume has been designed to enable you to remember the never-to-be-forgotten past.

Principal's Message

Members of the Class of 1966:

How appropriate that you should have chosen "Doorways" as the theme of your yearbook. As you put aside the things of youth and stand on the threshold of young adulthood an awesome array of "Doorways" will brighten or sadden your lives. They may be entrances to diligently sought after opportunities, or exits that will shatter your dreams, or barriers closed for lack of qualifications.

The magic electric eye that will swing wide the portals you want opened is you. Your abilities, your skills, your personalities, your initiative, industriousness, integrity, responsibility, and concern for others will be the deciding factors.

"Knock and it shall be opened; seek and you shall find!" You may spend the next several years or all the days of your life seeking the doorway leading to material success and spiritual happiness. Do not falter; the search itself will be a rewarding adventure.

To each member of the Class of 1966 Congratulations and sincere wishes for success and happiness.

Sincerely,
John A. Murray
Principal

Mr. Paster, don't you dare hit a Senior!

Chris—the good do-bee.

I know those tactics—you're a Greek freedom fighter!

Our Freshman year was spent at the Junior High School where we elected as officers Phil Harris, President; Mary Lou Whiting, Vice-President; Marilyn Trufant, Secretary; and Sheila Ahearn, Treasurer. We'll always remember:

- Mr. Morey's Pink shirt and matching Pink room.
- Mrs. Johnstone's pomegranates.
- The seed-spitting watermelon parties after our track meets.
- Mrs. Ashworth's constant reminders to put down our paws or she'd get woofy.
- Our sale of Grandma's Golden Butter Bits.
- How it would "behoove" us to read Mr. Eisenman's ancient history assignments and Mr. Kelley's warning that "A word to the wise is sufficient."
- How we never saw the end of the movie "Knute Rockne."
- Mr. Scotti's spring concert complete with a pie-throwing contest featuring Paul Murphy.
- And finally our farewell dance under water.

As wide-eyed, innocent Sophomores we entered the antiseptic halls of A.H.S. and elected as officers Chris Barron, President; Mary Lou Whiting, Vice-President; Marilyn Trufant, Secretary; and Sammye Greenlaw, Treasurer. We'll never forget:

- Our profitable Sophomore Hop—six whole dollars.

- Our beach outing at Morton's Park under the direction of "Chaperone(?) Sully and his Sting Ray.

- Mrs. Trask's "vicarious experiences" with "bicameral" government.
- That we were league champs in football and field hockey and won the honors of the Bay State Tourney.

- Our unique Geometry classes with Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Hartwell.
- The first play, "Mr. Crane of Sleepy Hollow," in which members of our class took part.

As sadder but wiser Juniors we entered the defaced halls and classrooms of A.H.S., skeptical of the year to come. To lead us through the year we elected Phil Harris, president; Mary Lou Whiting, vice-president; Marilyn Trufant, secretary; and Sheila Ahearn, treasurer. How could we ever forget:

- The little messages inscribed for posterity on the ceilings and walls?

- Our wild Chemistry Lab consisting of Chief Goldsberry and her tribe?
- Mr. Divoll's accusation that someone stole his "lousy" quizzes?
- Our bobby-sock days?
- Our wearing blue and white in tribute to Mrs. Dragonas and her Greek Independence Day?
- Our rare-hazing experience that erupted into a full-scale war ending in 10 hours of detention for a certain group of girls?
- Our Junior class outing that was so far out that no one went?
- Our Junior Prom, on which we worked so hard, followed by the "delightful" meal at Cape Way Manor, the blurry-eyed breakfast at Mary Lou's, and the segregation of the sexes at the beach?
- Barry McCrae's valiant effort to recruit A.H.S. students for Mackinac Island?
- Alegbra II under the guidance of Mr. Lord complete with B.B.'s miniature explosions?

As Seniors we "staggered" into the hallowed halls of A.H.S. still bearing the burden of the past three years. Elected to carry us through this our final year were Phil Harris, President; Jeff Ripley, Vice-President, Marilyn Trufant, Secretary; and Sheila Ahearn, Treasurer. We shall never forget:

- Our protest march in behalf of Joe Cote's hair complete with posters, slogans, and buttons. A truly hair raising experience!
- Our fabulous senior class play, "Ask Any Girl," in which Lee was left in the dark.
- The Senior rally where everyone got into the act and where the football players showed their true (?) spirit.
- Our annual bomb scare resulting in the dismissal of joyous students soon disenchanted by the police.
- French IV with Mrs. Rosen, an entity in itself.
- The rash of pajama parties and all-girl jam sessions.
- The fun after-play parties at Trudy's and Jeff's.
- The first "Schoolabaloo" ever held at A.H.S. featuring our "Surfer Girl" Seniors.

FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1966      DANCING 8 TO 11:30 P.M.
A.H.S. GYM      $3.00 PER COUPLE

Prom

Our Junior Prom was held on May 14, 1965 in our high school gym. Earl Hannafin provided the entertainment. Underclassmen served the refreshments.

Decorating for the prom was enjoyed by the entire class.

Senior Class Play

"Do you like my nose?"

"I may be desperate . . . but I'm not panic stricken!"

"Next time you get lonely, dear—write!"

"—you promised—you said you'd always look after your little brother."

The backstage crew

"You see, it might rain."

"I'm an actress—a method actress."

"Ask Any Girl"

"I have two aunts. Would you consider them immediate?"

"Back in Iowa, I was known as a pig."

The Cast

"It's a beautiful ring . . . in perfect taste."

"It isn't so much the backless that worries me, it's the frontless!"

"You live here?"

"As the birds see us"

"Honest Mr. D.; we weren't smoking backstage."

C a n d i d s

"And we danced . . . and danced."

"Yes, we read you, Batman."

"One thing our class has is legs."

"Myer for Hire."

"Bob, doesn't that man look familiar?"

"So you've got a headache,—don't take it out on them."

"My, Paul Lapenas, what a pair of poles!"

Underclassmen

"Humility is the solid foundation of all the virtues."

Confucius

The juniors add their spirit to a rally.

History and Philosophy Club

THE HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY CLUB is dedicated to expanding the horizons of its members beyond their everyday concerns. Under the direction of Mr. Paolini, they have discussed topics ranging from the meaning of life, to the United States foreign policy. The controversy this group stimulates is the truest indication of a healthy democracy.

Honor Society

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Barnett, E. Anderson, M. Trufant, M. A. Peck, P. Lapenas, J. Cote. SECOND ROW: P. Mahoney, S. Banks, K. McCarthy, K. Lloyd, G. Erwin, G. Sturtevant. THIRD ROW: J. Slonina, B. Hermanson, P. Funder, N. Stocker, R. Manning.

The Alpha Chapter of the National Honor Society, under the direction of Mrs. Barnett, is an organization of "honor" and distinction. All of its members must possess the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Its members sponsor a booksale each year and are called upon to usher at the more important school functions.

Library Assistants

Under the direction of Miss Frame, the library assistants provide for the smooth operation of our school library. They help to assure easy and fast location of needed books and reference materials. They sacrifice study periods willingly and are a great help to all who take advantage of the school library.

SEATED: S. Dwyer—Treas., B. Anderson—Sec., L. Fontaine—Vice-Pres., J. Burke—Pres., Miss Frame—Advisor. FIRST ROW: R. Brown, G. Spinney, J. Bragg, D. Pike, L. Paquette, S. Bradford, C. Verity, C. ## Health Room Assistants

These girls assist our school nurse, Mrs. Buckley, in operating the health room and giving hearing and eye tests to all the students. They give up their free periods as a service to the school and are imperative in the operating of our "sick bay."

E. MacDonald, J. Hanrahan, J. Bragg, L. Pearson, J. Messier, L. Higgins, C. Melanson, Mrs. Buckley.

Future Secretaries

The Future Secretaries Club was established for girls who aspire toward a secretarial career. The Girls assist the faculty by willingly giving of their time to type out necessary papers.

FIRST ROW: L. Williams, N. Pedersen, P. Anzivino, K. Sniger, Pres.—M. Manduca, Treas.—R. Villa, Sec.—D. Fozzy, L. Clockadile, M. Florino, S. Hanrahan, J. Pear, F. McIntyre, E. MacDonald, S. Fontaine, J. Pepe, C. Verity, C. Loud, C. Hickey, S. Chandler.

Radio Club

Composed of students who share a common interest in amateur radio, the Radio Club encourages and assists its members in obtaining operators' licenses. These "Hams" will provide a beneficial public service and they have been indispensable in past emergencies.

FIRST ROW: J. Leahy, R. Whitman, S. Baker, J. Cicchese, M. Gnong. SECOND ROW: A. Marchino, G. Smith, E. Connor, R. Damon, P. Jordan. THIRD ROW: J. Cote, P. Zakrzewski, E. Palopoli, D. Melville.

Student Council

The main aim of the Student Council this year, under the direction of Mr. Smith, has been to install a coke machine in the high school. Various projects have been undertaken to raise the needed funds such as a "Schoolabaloo." The Student Council has also drawn up a new policy on class dues, which will become effective in September of 1966.

French Circle

Abington High has a very active French Club this year. With faculty advisor, Mrs. Rosen, Marilyn Trufant as president has planned French sings, short skits, films, and interesting games making the language enjoyable.

Advisor, Mrs. Rosen. SENIORS: E. Anderson, K. Bean, T. Gardiner, B. Hall, L. Higgins, P. Lapenas, S. Leahy, C. Lind, P. Mahoney, W. J. Maxwell, M. Reidy, G. Sturtevant, M. Trufant, M. Tyrrell. Theall, J. Venuti, S. Wright. FRESHMEN: M. Edwards, P. Lescynski, L. Olson, P. Percy, V. Trufant.

The Beaver

The Beaver is a new activity at our school this year. It is published weekly and has been a big hit with all the students and teachers. Under the direction of Mrs. Trask, the staff has worked very hard to induce school spirit and interest.

Marine Science

The Marine Science Club, advised by Mr. Crahan, was created to help the students fascinated by this field pursue their interest in greater depth than is possible in the classroom. Insuring these students familiarity with related vocations, the club has begun construction of topographical map of the ocean floor and an aquarium.

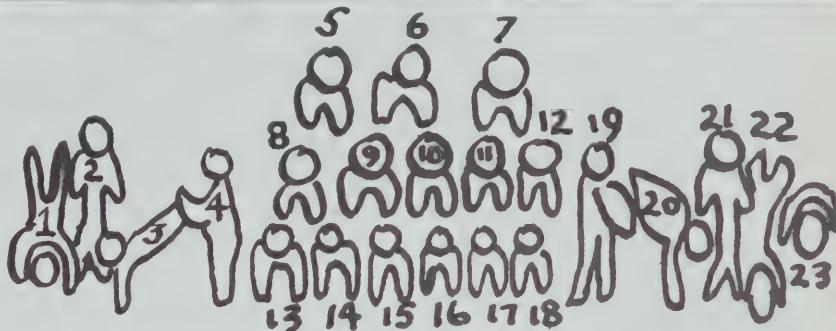

FIRST ROW: D. Martin, G. Lowe, L. McCarthy, S. May, P. Skarinka, K. Weir, R. Donovan. SECOND ROW: S. Pearl, C. Morse, R. Pelland, J. Coleman, S. Coughlin, D. Seaman, R. Rudolph, Mr. Crahan.

Girls' Leaders Club

1. P. Funder, 2. N. McPhelemy, 3. P. Brown, 4. L. Fontaine, 5. C. Verity, 6. G. Morgan, 7. P. Davey, 8. J. Pepe, 9. M. Beland, 10. M. Lotti, 11. A. Stuart, 12. M. Gannon, 13. K. Roberts, 14. M. A. The Girls' Leaders Club assists Miss Crooks by giving up their free periods to aid in the girls gym classes. They also manage the intramural program which includes officiating, scoring, timing, and scheduling of games.

Cafeteria Assistants

This year the Seniors have started a new trend by "volunteering" their services to the school. Their deft hands have speeded up the lunch lines immensely. They are aided by a few underclassmen who hope to inherit their skill.

L. Olson, B. Hanrahan, J. McGovern, B. Hall, S. Greenlaw, G. Soper, T. Gardiner, S. McCrillis, S. Carroll, S. Pearl, W. J. Maxwell, R. Bancroft, R. Maines.

We Leave Behind . . .

Empty classrooms once filled with laughter
Never to witness our presence hereafter.
Lessons taught and knowledge gained
Through toil, tears, sweat, and pain.

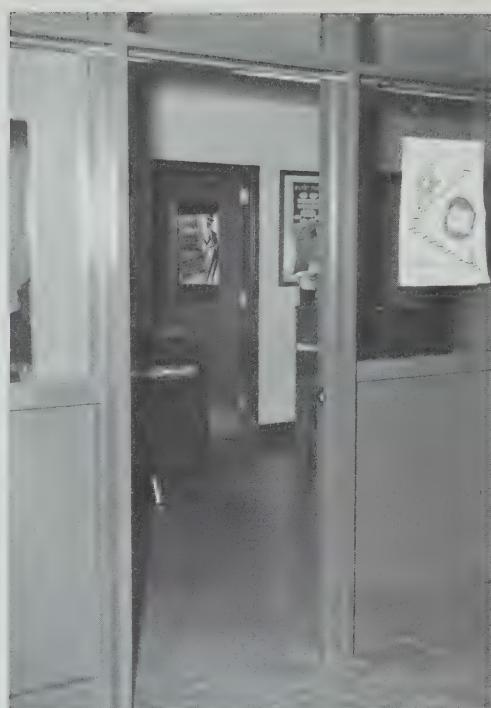

The locker rooms where we dressed for gym
A state of confusion they always were in.
Scattered all over were sneakers and books
To the dismay of Mr. Ferrisi and Miss Crooks.

The health room provided a way out for fakers
Who tried to convince us of terrible aches,
Where yearbook deadlines were finally met,
And signs denouncing our beloved cigarette

The cafeteria always provided much fun
With olives and fried clams for everyone.
And how the kids cheered when something was dropped
To the sound of the milk bottle tops being popped.

The gym which housed our gallant teams
Our riotous rallies and raucous screams.
Where we all took refuge from the Bomb
And spent the evening of our Junior Prom.

The office ruled us with an iron hand
Where some got off with a stiff reprimand.
Where they doled out detentions with obvious glee
At the end of the year we were glad to be free.

The activity room where we held our plays,
Concerts, hops, and study hall "daze."
Special assemblies and Driver Ed,
Senior class meetings that Phil Harris led.

Despite all this, we're sad to leave
The school where we did much achieve.
We've grown and learned and matured in mind,
And now we must our own pathways find.

AND SO WE LEAVE THE DOORS OF A.H.C.

The Class of 1966

1. Stu Lane leaves Mr. Ferrisi and Mr. Reilly a subscription of "The Morning Telegraph"—in hopes that they'll make better selections.
2. Mark Chappell leaves Caren Carlson without a ride.
3. Judy Schauffler and Eileen MacDonald leave "Our Day in Court" to Donna Footit, Karen Wilmot, Betsy Gould, Beverly Anderson, and Sherry Eldridge.
4. Susan Leahy leaves a one-way ticket to Mackinac Island for the above mentioned Junior girls.
5. The Senior boys leave the Junior girls "High and Dry."
6. Joe Cote leaves his "treasured tresses" to Mr. Murray.
7. Phil Harris leaves—to chase sharks at Duxbury Beach.
8. Dick Dessertine leaves his shades to Bill Anderson.
9. Mary Anne Peck leaves Mary Shimkus and former friend a book on self-defense.
10. Ted Szczepankiewicz leaves a patch of rubber in the High School parking lot.
11. The Senior cheerleaders leave Kathy West a hearing aid.
12. The literary staff leaves Mrs. Rosen an eraser to take their names off her "good list."
13. We leave a certain Chemistry teacher in Room 112 a blueberry.
14. The Senior cafeteria workers leave their cash registers—"voluntarily."
15. Wendy Maxwell leaves her cowbell to Linda Hansen.
16. Paul Lapenas leaves his "Robin Hood" hat to Michael O'Connor.
17. We leave Mrs. Barnett the latest edition of Webster's Dictionary and enough paper on which to write her own Latin book.
18. We leave Mr. Divoll a thousand and one Mrs. Dragonopolises in authentic Greek dancing costumes.
19. We leave Mr. Naks our thanks for making a save at the faculty basketball game.
20. To the library we leave a year's subscription to Playboy magazine.
21. Jeff Ripley leaves Miss Abar with no one to chase after her.
22. Stanley Shedarowich leaves Mrs. Connors in peace.
23. We leave Mr. Burns a wolf whistle for his bright yellow Mustang.
24. Lois Pearson leaves her bottle of Miss Clairol to Ricky Kuusela.

Last Will and Testament

25. We leave a long playing album of animal noises to the Juniors—to perfect their technique for next year's Macbeth performance.
26. We leave John Kelly a package of smokeless cigarettes for use between classes.
27. Miss Durgan's sixth grade class leaves with fond memories of Blair Taylor.
28. Chris Barron and Kathy Sniger leave A.H.S. to fight on new battlefields.
29. Brooks Bartlett reluctantly leaves his long-fought-for Coke machine.
30. Dick Caruso leaves his "same old line" to certain Junior girls.
31. We leave Hunter Mayberry, our "Fair-Housing Representative, still asking if there are any questions or "prejuges" about "Ed and Sally."
32. Jimmy Orcutt leaves to go fishing—sometimes for more than fish.
33. Wayne Nisby leaves the office chairs—vacant.
34. Richard Masterson leaves his brain to science.
35. Pat Anzivino leaves a can of "Hidden Magic" to Pam Barrows.
36. Robert Turner leaves A.H.S. still classified as 4-F.
37. We leave Miss Gearin a red wig; That's one she doesn't have—yet!
38. We leave Mr. Myers some "Windex" for his glasses.
39. We leave a can of "Redcap Refresh-R" to the occupants of the third floor stockroom between classes.
40. We leave Mr. Corcoran his own personal scale to save him his daily trips to the Health Room.
41. We leave the Juniors with strong doubts that they could ever match our acting talents. "Ask Any Girl!"
42. We leave each freshman, with the exception of a few Billy's, two feet of height.
43. We leave the underclassmen still wondering where the hair came from in the school lunches.
44. We leave the "Beaver" dammed.
45. The Staff of the 1966 Green Years leaves the 1967 staff a lot of work to do, but nothing to work with.
46. We leave Mr. Murray a roll of green tissue for use at future rallies.
47. Finally, we the class of 1966 leave Abington High School.

THANK YOU

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the sponsors and advertisers who have helped us finance the "Green Years". At the same time, we wish to suggest to all our friends who read this book that they patronize the stores listed in our advertising section. Yearbook advertising may reach a more limited audience than newspaper advertising, nevertheless it is much more permanent and much more handsomely displayed, and it will be read through the years by all of us who cherish this souvenir of happy high school days.
